Partners-Jordan Projects Activities

"Empowering Women through Economic Mentorship"

This project is funded by the European Commission, and implemented in cooperation with Partners for Democratic Change International – PDCI, for the period 2011-2013.

Training of Trainers:

As part of the above mentioned project; Partners – Jordan conducted five-day training of trainers on November 20th-24th, in Amman, for 12 women from unprivileged areas, and 4 local authorities from different areas in Jordan, in order to develop their knowledge and skills on the legal component, project management, and gender Budgeting and also to provide an introduction to training of trainers methodologies.

This activity aims at increasing the capacity of vulnerable women to engage in sustainable economic initiatives at local level, through targeted skill training in legal, project management and gender budgeting frameworks.

"Youth Mediation as a Tool of Conflict Resolution"

This project is made possible with a grant from Civil Society Program - CSP, implemented by the Academy for Educational Development – AED, and funded by USAID, for the period 2010-2012.

Open Days in Irbid & Ma'an:

Under the activity "implementation of generated ideas to spread awareness and incubating mediation services in the Jordan University of Science and Technology in Irbid, and in the Hussein Bin Talal University in Ma'an"; Partners – Jordan coordinated with the mediation committee in each university the implementation of an open day on November 29th in Irbid, and 30th in Ma'an.

The aim of this activity is to inform the university students about mediation service, and its benefits, in addition to recognize youth mediators among their peers in each university.

Partners-Jordan Consultancies

Mediation Training:

Partners-Jordan has been consulted by Penal Reform International to train on Mediation for 25 Police Officers, for five days between December 4th & 8th 2011.

Advocacy Training:

Partners-Jordan has been consulted by the Higher Council for the Affairs of People with Disability, to train 28 participants in 5-day on Cooperative Advocacy skills, between the 11th and 15th of December, 2011.

As a first step, Partners-Jordan has conducted focus group discussion prior to the training to talk about the most common cases for People with Disability in Jordan, in order to have a customized training afterwards.
