REFORM OF THE SECURITY SECTOR

Pre-2010 Situation:
• disorganization, corruption, weak system
• An unsafe environment for civilians

2010: evaluation report +162 recommendations

2011: launched of the security sector reform (SSR)

2014: Community policing doctrine and strategy
OBJECTIVES OF COMMUNITY POLICING

- Police who protect citizens
- A police force that acts in accordance with national and international standards
- Police who respects human rights
- Police to prevent/respond to gender-based violence
- Police accountable to citizens
- Police with a single chain of command organized and structured to effectively fulfill its duties
- A police force that actively promote the recruitment, training, and promotion of women;
MAIN ACHIEVEMENTS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Category</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Co-production</td>
<td>• Local Security and Delinquency Prevention Council and Forums</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
| Cross-sectoral collaboration | • Ministry of Security
|                           | • Ministry of Justice
|                           | • Ministry of Education                                                   |
| Trainings                 | • Guineans training
|                           | • Promotion of local expertise                                            |
| Institutional ownership   | • Directorate of Community Police                                         |
|                           | • Community policing mainstreamed in all the police departments            |
| Pilots                    | • In 14 police precincts out of 44                                          |
WAYS FORWARD

1. Expand the implementation of community police to all the 40 central police stations in the country through a development plan under way within the National Directorate of Public Security.

2. Implement community policing in Guinea mining regions: conflicts, migrations, socio-economic challenges.

3. Additional support from technical and financial partners to consolidate the gain and expand at the national level.