A recruitment pool of trained and available outreach police

Success Story

A girl was able to continue her studies after being spared from an early marriage by her family following the intervention of a police officer to whom she had the courage to confide.

Challenges and Ways Forward

Responding to the growing demand from schools desiring to be covered by the awareness-raising outreach police initiative (covering more schools and localities)

To train more police officers and to provide them with means and equipment to facilitate the exercise of this specific mission
